November 16, 2009

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Gilles McDougall as Acting Secretary General of the Copyright Board of Canada, effective November 16, 2009. Gilles has been the Board's Director of Research and Analysis since February 2002. Based on this experience, in which he proved his great intellectual rigour and demonstrated many fine professional and personal qualities, he is entirely qualified to rise to this new challenge being offered to him.

I would be remiss if I didn't take this opportunity to thank those who have worked with me over the last 16 years in my capacity as Secretary General. This includes not only the Board's members and employees, but also all of the stakeholders who have offered me their constant support. Were it not for their invaluable assistance, I would never have been able to carry out my duties, and I owe all my deepest gratitude.

All official communications with the Board must now be channelled through Gilles McDougall, whose contact details are as follows:
